Re: United States v. Stephen M. Calk, S1 19 Cr. 366 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

Pursuant to the Court's Order dated March 25, 2021, (Dkt. 180), the Government respectfully writes to file the parties' exhibit lists.

As directed by the Order, the exhibit lists note the parties' objections and those exhibits to which the parties have stipulated to admissibility. The parties agree on the admissibility of the exhibits to which no objection is noted, with the provisos that the Government respectfully requests that the Court not immediately admit or resolve disputes over exhibits it has marked with an asterisk, as noted in the Government's exhibit list, and that both parties respectfully reserve the right to request limiting instructions for particular exhibits at trial to which they have not objected, depending on the context in which they are offered.

The Government has delivered to Chambers today the hyperlinked exhibit lists and exhibits directed by the Court's Order.

Respectfully submitted,

AUDREY STRAUSS
United States Attorney
